AFFIDAVIT OF ANTHONY HAUGH - MUR 5057

STATE OF NEW YORK)
COUNTY OF KINGS) : ss.

ANTHONY HAUGH, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. On August 26, 2000, I received a letter from Darryl R. Wold of the Federal Election Commission dated August 23, 2000. This was the first time that I was aware that my name was on a money order for a $700 contribution to the Noach Dear campaign.

2. I am employed as superintendent of a building in Brooklyn and also own and operate a horse drawn carriage in Manhattan.

3. Occasionally, those of us working out of the same stable are solicited by fellow carriage owners to make a small donation to differing causes, such as when one of the group is injured or taking a trip or to support some cause of common interest. In 1998, someone in the stable (I do not remember who) asked us to contribute $100 each to the Noach Dear congressional campaign because he was generally favorable to the hansom carriage industry. I gave $100 in cash to whoever was making the collection.

4. I remember granting permission to include my name on a list of the stable contributors to be submitted to the Dear campaign along with our contributions. The use of money orders to transmit our contributions may have been mentioned, but I never understood or agreed that contributions by others would be made in my name.

5. I did not purchase any money order made payable to the Dear campaign. I do not know who purchased the $700 money order or who put my name on it. In fact, I only became aware that my name had appeared on the money order upon receiving the letter from the Federal Election Commission letter dated August 23, 2000

6. Further, I never received a letter from the Noach Dear for Congress Committee (mentioned on page 3 of the Federal Election Commission Factual and Legal Analysis) which solicited signed statements regarding personal contributions to Dear's campaign. Until my receipt of Mr. Wold's letter, I was entirely unaware that there were any issues stemming from my $100 cash contribution made nearly two years ago.
